Impartial Execution of the Laws.

The Milwaukee News says that the democracy demand an impartial execution of the laws. We concede that this is the demand of the democracy, whenever the laws are favorable to slavery, but never when they are against it. Witness the recent case of Col. Utley in Kentucky, who is required to violate a law of congress, and because he refuses, the News denounces him.

The News and its party wanted the laws executed on old John Brown, but it is in favor of forgiving "our southern brethren," who have murdered more innocent people than Brown could have conceived of. Where is their impartiality in this case?

We never heard the News or the democracy insist that the laws should be executed upon southern bullies and mobocrats who put people to torture and death in the south and in Kansas for expressing an opinion adverse to slavery. On the contrary the exponents of the democracy have universally maintained that freedom of opinion against slavery, where it exists, was dangerous to the institution, and ought not to be tolerated.

We never heard them quote from the constitution that "the citizens of each state shall be entitled to all the privileges and immunities of citizens of the several states." That constitutional provision ought to protect free speech and opinion in all the states, but it has never done so since modern democracy ruled the country. Thousands of citizens of the north have been outraged, immured in prison, or suffered death for holding opinions adverse to slavery; but democracy did not care, or if it did, these things made it heart glad, because it secured its god, slavery, more certainly on its throne.

If the constitution is the supreme law, why have not its provisions, all of them, been executed by the democracy, if that party is in favor of the "impartial execution of the laws?" No. You may prate this glittering falsehood into deluded ears for all time to come and it will not be true, that the party which the News supports is in favor of the execution of any constitutional provision, or of any law, which does not defend and shield from harm the accursed slaveholding aristocracy of the south. It gives everything to slavery and nothing to freedom, and is therefore false to the people who are the true democracy.

When its candidate for congress declared that a republican member of congress ought to be hung for his opinions, was the News in favor of an "impartial execution of the laws?" What law had been violated? None. But it was proposed to violate the law to please the slave aristocracy, and the News rewards the author of this atrocious sentiment with a seat in congress. From such impartial execution of the law, may the Lord in his mercy deliver this land.

GAX. HOOKER IN COMMAND.—It is rumored that Gen. Burnside has been relieved of the command of the army of the Potomac, and Gen. Hooker appointed in his place. Hooker is a fighting general, and that is what the army of the Potomac has long needed. The rumor, however, may prove to be unfounded, as the World is not first rate authority.

Gen. Boyle, from headquarters at Louisville, has issued an order forbidding commanding officers from harboring slaves, or in any manner interfering with them. This covers the case of Col. Utley.—Milwaukee News.

What right has Gen. Boyle to issue an order in conflict with a law of congress? We thought the News was in favor of the "enforcement of the laws!"

WHAT THE REBELS EXPECT OF THEIR NORTHERN ALLIES.—The Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligence in reviewing the expedition of Gen. Bragg, exposes this scheme, and holds that general responsible for the failure. It says:

"Had Gen. Bragg done his duty as faithfully and promptly as Gen. Smith, at Louisville would have been ours. Cincinnati would have furnished us supplies, while Columbus, Ohio, might have been our headquarters. Then would the Vallandigham of Ohio, and the Brights of Indiana, have rallied to the issuing of Gen. Bragg's noted proclamation; then would many thousands of friends in Indiana, Ohio and Illinois, have joined the southern army; then, too, could Gen. Bragg, having cut off the West from the Eastern states, have whispered of peace into the northeastern ear; a might we have reasonably hoped. But now all hope of peace is impoisoned, and our prospects of gloomier than when we began to mount, because our appearance Ohio has caused many a man to go to the northern army, that had we south of the mountain, would have taken up arms against us."

NEAR CHANCE OF HEART.—The Rock, Mass. Journal bears an excellent article, written by Rev. N. Adams, of Boston, (author of the South Side View,) voted the republican ticket at the late election, and declared publicly that he considered and meant it as a vote for Charles Sumner. This is a charge, indeed. Dr. Adams heretofore has been counted one of the most inveterate pro-slavery men in the north.

Last Night's Report.
CAIRO, Dec. 1.
Special to Chicago Journal.—I have just conversed with a gentleman who accompanied Gen. Sherman's division twenty-two miles from Memphis. At last accounts it was beyond Cold Water.

The roads are very good and the troops in fine spirits.

On Friday eight guerrillas dashed on the rear of the army and captured Sergt. Hart of the 6th Missouri and Capt. Walker of the 8th Missouri, and two privates of company I.

Just as the rebels were about to march off to Germantown, four privates, stragglers of the Missouri regiment, came up, charged on the seceders, dispersed them, released the prisoners, and captured a team.

I have important information from the expedition which has left Helena, but cannot send it.

Everything in the south-west looks cheering. If the rebels attempt to make a stand they will be literally demolished.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.
Gen. Burnside has been here in consultation with the President and the war department. He has returned to his command.

Admiral Dupont, on board the flag-ship Wabash, Port Royal, Nov. 25th, writes that on the night of the 13th a steamer attempted to run the blockade off Charleston. She was discovered and chased, but escaped seaward, owing to a dense fog.

On the night of the 16th a steamer, supposed to be the same, attempted to run the blockade, but was discovered within two hundred yards of the steamer Blunt, which fired shell at her, which exploded on the deck of the rebel steamer, causing her to change her course. She disappeared in the darkness, and was supposed to have returned to Nassau disabled.

The navy department has information that the pirate Alabama was expected in the vicinity of the Azores early in November, to receive supplies of ammunition and men from the Bahamas. A steamer took dispatches there for Capt. Sommers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.
The steamer Cambria has arrived from New Orleans, 20th.

Capt. Franks, of the 12th Connecticut regiment, has been dismissed the service, having been convicted by court martial of having received bribes.

There were still some cases of yellow fever at Houston, Texas, on the 3d, but the disease was not epidemic. The fever still prevailed at Matagorda, Indianola and Lavaca, with deaths therefrom at each.

On the 31st ult., the steamer Dan was towing a federal gunboat from Sabine Pass to the town, she was assailed by a volley from forty rebel troops concealed in a mill. The United States forces opened fire on mill and town, destroying the mill and a few residences, and setting fire to a few other buildings. The fire was extinguished.

A powerful squadron was concentrating in the Mississippi. There were already more vessels at New Orleans than at any time since its capture. A large number of river boats have been armed.

There is great activity in military circles preparatory to offensive movements. A general inspection of men and arms is about to take place.

Guerrillas infested the river banks below the city. One naval vessel had been fired into, and returned the shot with grape and canister, but thick brushwood enabled the assailants to escape. No vessel, unless well armed, now leaves the city.

Gen. Butler is about to place overseers on confiscated plantations, to save the cotton and sugar.

The new cotton crop is coming in quite freely.

Gen. Butler has permitted the resumption of the publication of the National Advocate, after explanation from Jacob Barker that he had no intention to aid the rebels.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30.
New Orleans advises give glowing account of a Union demonstration, held on the 15th. Resolutions were adopted, expressing the admiration, expressing the desire of the speedy opening of the Mississippi, and endorsing the rule of Gen. Butler.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.
HOUSE.—Mr. Vallandigham offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the committee on judiciary to inquire into and report by what authority the postmaster general undertakes to decide what newspapers may and may not be transmitted through the mails.

Mr. Richardson, of Illinois, offered a resolution requesting the President to inform the House what citizens of Illinois are now confined in Fort Warren, Lafayette, and Delaware and the Old Capitol Prison, and upon what charges they were arrested.

Proceedings of the Council.

SPECIAL MEETING.
Monday Evening, Dec. 1st, 1892.
Present—The Mayor, Ald. Bates, Collins, McChesney, Patten and Winans.
The usual order of business was suspended, and the council proceeded to the consideration of the subject of illegal taxes charged back to the city.
The following communication was read from J. A. Sleeper, esq.:
To the Common Council of the city of Janesville:

Having given the subject of your resolution in relation to the amount to be raised by the city of Janesville for county purposes as much attention as the limited time has permitted, I beg leave to report that I am of the opinion—

First, That the sum certified from the county board to the city is too large, and cannot be collected.

Second, That the council cannot direct that any other sum than that so certified be raised.

Third, That the county cannot legally call on the city to raise any deficiency, except it be on account of county taxes, and that it would be inexpedient as well as illegal to require the city to raise any money on account of delinquencies embraced in the reassessments, being from 1854 to 1887, both inclusive.

Fourth, That to ascertain the amount that should be raised by the city for county purposes, an account should be taken between the city and the county.

As to payments by the city treasurer of moneys received by him on reassessed taxes, in cases where the amount so received is less than the county certificate relating to it calls for, I suggest that the treasurer pay on any such certificate that may be presented to him the amount received by him applicable to it, and endorse on it the amount so paid and the date of the payment, and that he take for the amount so paid the receipt of the person holding the certificate, and that he present the certificate, embracing thereon the number and date of the certificate, and the land in it described; that such receipt be taken in a book to be provided, with printed blanks for that purpose, in order that the same may be conveniently referred to and preserved.

The undersigned, being unable to present this report in person, begs leave to say that, if desired, he will give further attention to the matters embraced in said resolution, and hereafter make a more full and complete report.

Respectfully, &c.,
J. A. SLEEPER.

Ald. Patten introduced the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the report of Joseph A. Sleeper, Esq., as to the sum to be raised by tax for county purposes, for the present year, be accepted and placed on file.

And ordered: That the city clerk defer preparing the tax lists for the collection of state and county taxes until the further order of the council.
And ordered further: That the Mayor give notice to the county board of supervisors of the action of the council with reference to the collection of taxes; and that he further notify said board that the council will direct that the legal amount for county taxes will be levied and put in process of collection as soon as that amount shall be determined, and certified to the city by the said board.

A long discussion ensued on the general subject, in which the members of the board and Messrs. Sloan, district attorney, (by request) and Mr. S. A. Hudson, one of the county supervisors, participated.
The resolutions of Ald. Patten were finally adopted.

An appropriation of $15 was made from the 3d ward fund to Frederick Koeblin, for work on the street.

Ald. Patten introduced an order to transfer to the 3d ward tax certificates to a sufficient amount to pay the indebtedness of the city to that fund. Adopted.
Several accounts were presented and referred.

An order was adopted authorizing the payment of the inspectors and clerks of the last election $2 per day for their services. The rules were suspended and ordinances passed fixing the location of the wood and hay markets on the east and west sides of the river.

[These ordinances will be published at length.]

Ald. Patten introduced an order approving the payment of the license money to the county treasurer, and authorizing the city treasurer to charge the amount to the general fund.

Ald. Winans introduced an order giving Capt. Tice one-half of the proceeds of the fines collected for violation of certain city ordinances.

An ordinance reported by the judiciary committee fixing the location of the grain market in Franklin street between Milwaukee and Bluff street, was read a first and second time. A motion to suspend the rules to put it on its passage was lost.

The fine and costs imposed on Henry Spohn were remitted.

Ald. Patten introduced an ordinance amending the cow ordinance by restraining the running at large of cattle during the day-time, between the 10th day of December and the 20th day of March in each year. The rules were suspended and the ordinance passed. Ayes—Ald. Collins, McChesney and Patten. Noes—Ald. Bates and Winans.

The school commissioners were authorized to sell the 3d ward school house and lot, if they deem best.

On motion of Ald. McChesney, George Nutley was appointed a ward inspector for the west side of the river.

Adjourned.

The people of Minnesota threaten, in case government pardons the condemned Indians, to take the law into their own hands and visit condign punishment upon the average.

Drake's Plantation Bitters.

They purify, strengthen, and invigorate. They create a healthy appetite. They are an antidote to change of water and diet. They overcome effects of dyspepsia and late hours. They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent malarial and intermittent fevers. They purify the blood and cleanse the system. They cure dyspepsia, cholera, and cholera morbus. They cure liver complaint and nervous headache. They are the best bitters in the world. They make the weak man strong, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are made of pure St. Croix Rum, the celebrated Caligua Bark, roots and herbs, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage, without regard to age or time of day. Particularly recommended to delicate persons residing in the tropics. Sold by all Grocers, Druggists, Hotels, and Saloons.
